Novel and Exciting Races.

Among the numerous novelties and "events" in a performance of the great Cole Younger and Frank James Historical Wild West, amusing and curious races are conspicuous features. Some of them could not possibly be duplicated by any other organization for popular entertainment in the world. Take, for instance, the race between a cowboy, a Cossack, an Arab, a Mexican, a Gaucho and an Indian, mounted on bronco, Russian, Arabian, mustang and Indian horses. And it must be remembered that in this arena all is genuine, exactly what it is represented as being. Limitations belong to the circus and the theater. This great Wild West show will be in Johnson City on Wednesday, June 17th, under the leadership of the famous men whose names it bears—Cole Younger and Frank James.

GEMS FROM MAX O'RELL.

(New York American)

A selection of the good things Max O'Rell wrote might well include almost everything he ever put on paper. Some of the following, however, will illustrate his cheerful philosophy and the universal compass of his work:

Women are roses. I always suspected it from the thorns.

The key to success in life is the knowledge of the value of all things.

If all men were deaf, and all women were blind, matrimony would stand a much better chance of success.

Women are all actresses. What makes actresses so fascinating and attractive to men is that they are women twice over.

It often requires a head more solidly screwed on the shoulders to bear a great success than to stand a great misfortune.

Everybody runs after happiness but nobody finds it, for the very simple reason that happiness does not exist unless you call it contentment.

~~Women are all vipers who only become~~ a devil, a sister of mercy who may change to a viper, a ladybird who may be transformed into a stinging bee.

As long as there is one woman left on the face of the earth, and one man left to observe her, the world will be able to hear something new about women.

When a woman says of her husband "He is a wretch," she may still love

FACTS ARE STUBBORN.

If Johnson City People Are Not Convinced By Local Testimony, they Differ From Other People.

Facts are stubborn.

Some may be disputed.

None can be disproved.

A fact is always hedged about with proof;

Has to stand the test of investigation

Or it drifts to the realm of doubt

Investigate closely the following

The closer the scrutiny the more convincing the results

A Johnson City citizen speaks here

Speaks from experience and conviction:

H. C. Beasley, Jr., living on Myrtle avenue, employed as a harness maker by W. I. Hart & Co., says: "When I find a good thing I like to tell of it and I know Doan's Kidney Pills are a good thing for they cured me. I was troubled for years with an aching back very severe at times. The kidney secretions were irregular, sometimes too and often very scant. I used several remedies but derived no benefit.

My attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at the Patton Drug Co.'s store. They began their work at once and by the time I had finished the box the backache left me and my kidneys were performing their functions in a natural and normal manner."
